Dec. James Williams:

Dear Sir—It gives me great pleasure to know that you are again preparing your medicine for the cure of Dyspepsia, for many of my acquaintances have repeatedly asked me where it could be procured, knowing that I had been cured by it. As I think that a public acknowledgement of the great benefit I have received from the use of your medicine, is not only due to you, but may be useful to others, I now make it. For several years I suffered from Dyspepsia, which increased to such an extent that my health and constitution were rapidly sliking under it. I was constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was compelled to restrict myself to the most simple food, and even that I could not digest; I felt a loss of strength, disinclination to exercise, and (as you have it in your advertisement) a general feeling of depresit in your advertisement) a general feeling of depression and indescribable weariness. In the year 1838, hearing from others high recommendation of your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured and used it with the most bappy effect; under its influence languor and weariness gradually passed away, and my appetite revived, which I could gratify with impunity. Tea years have now elapsed, and my confidence in the curative powers of your medicine has of course in creased, for it completely cured me, when I failed to obtain relief from any other source.
